

"A Light in the Room"

From the moment I walked in,
Her presence felt warm and bright.
She checked my blood pressure, weighed me in,
But what struck me was her light.

I looked into her gentle eyes,
A kindness so pure and true.
A gift she is to those she meets,
Bringing joy in all she'll do.

So I told her just how rare it is,
To shine the way she does.
Thank you for the care you give,
For the world needs more of your love

Thank You Laura...
